COMPETITIVE TRAFFIC:

Traffic to or from an industry served by DME/ICE which can be handled via DME/ICE to or from the station at which the industry is located via a line-haul route over which local or joint through rates apply between the industry and the origin or destination (as the case may be) of the shipment.

CONNECTING RAILROAD:

Railroad that has a direct physical connection with another or forming a connecting link between 2 or more railroads.

INDUSTRIAL SWITCHING:

Movement of freight cars between 2 close locations. Typically involves moving cars within a yard from specific industry locations to a yard for placement on a train or the reverse.

INTERMEDIATE SWITCHING:

The movement of cars in switching service from the interchange tracks of one railroad to the interchange tracks of the same railroad or another railroad, from, to or between points in the same switching district on which DME/ICE neither originates or terminates the shipment nor receives a line-haul.

NON-COMPETITIVE TRAFFIC:

Traffic to or from an industry served by DME/ICE which traffic cannot be handled via DME/ICE to or from the station at which the industry is located via a line-haul route over which local or joint through rates apply between the industry and the origin or destination (as the case may be) of the shipment.

RAILROAD:

DME/ICE or DME/ICE and any other railroad, to the extent that joint rates between DME/ICE and includes railroads performing switching or terminal services.

RECIPROCAL SWITCHING:

Switching of carload freight between industries on the tracks of DME/ICE as named herein and the point of interchange with connecting railroads, when such traffic either precedes or follows a line-haul movement.

A. Between all industries located on DME (at destination stations other than those industries specifically named in this Section) and any connecting line-haul railroad at destination station: 1. Charge: $1030.00 per car. a. Applies only on inbound line-haul shipments delivered to DME at destination station by connecting line-haul railroads consigned to industries for which no other provision is made for reciprocal switching, or where other provisions of this tariff would, except for this item, make reciprocal switching rates inapplicable. The purpose of this item is to eliminate assessment of combination line-haul rates in effecting delivery of shipments to industries when connecting line-haul railroads erroneously deliver shipments to DME at destination stations in instances where reciprocal switching rates are otherwise inapplicable. DME will, in no circumstance, take waybills into line-haul revenue accounts when line-haul service to the destination station is performed by other than DME. Charges accruing under the provisions of this item will be assessed by DME only to the inbound line-haul railroad. b. A charge will apply in lieu of $1030.00 per car, when the inbound line-haul railroad surrenders to DME copy of the line-haul waybill with no deletions other than in the Rate, Freight Advances and/or Prepaid columns. When this document is not available at the time of interchange, inbound line-haul railroad may recover overpayment from DME through the Switching Exceptions Statement, provided that copy of the waybill is attached to such statement. 1) Charge: $ 0.52 per 100 pounds Minimum Charge: $514.00 per car. B. The provisions of this item will not apply when authorized routing is applicable via the destination station with DME included as the terminating line-haul railroad. ABSORPTION OF SWITCH CHARGES	ITEM 5000.00
ISSUED DATE: JUNE 11, 2008 EFFECTIVE DATE: JULY 1, 2008

- A. Where stated that other railroads switching charges will be absorbed, DME/ICE will pay the switching railroad their lawfully published switching charge, except as otherwise provided.
- B. Any railroads switching charges not absorbed by DME/ICE will be assessed against the party paying the line-haul transportation charge.
- C. Absorption provisions specific to movements governed by and published in other tariffs or publications will take precedence over the provisions published in this tariff.
- D. DME/ICE will not absorb switching charges when an intermediate switch railroad is used to affect an interchange with another railroad with which DME/ICE maintains a direct interchange at the same station or switching district.
- E. The absorption of switching charges applicable, whether absorbed in whole or in part, will be the charge in effect on the date of the actual physical interchange of the loaded car.
- F. When more than one car is required for a shipment or when loaded in or on articulated cars, switching absorption's, if any, will only apply to one car. Switching charges on the balance of the cars will not be absorbed (not applicable on shipments moving on rates which by their application require the use of more than one car).
